

W. Kim Austen is president of Allied Insurance. A graduate of the University of Nebraska, he holds a B.S. degree in mathematics and economics, and has earned the Chartered Property Casualty Underwriter designation. Austen began his association with Allied in 1976 as a claims representative. He has held various management positions in underwriting and was named regional vice president of the Rocky Mountain Regional Office in 1990. He moved to the Lincoln Regional Office as regional vice president in 1992 and to the Des Moines Regional Office in 1994. He was promoted to Senior Vice President – Product Development in January 2001. In 2003 he was named Senior Vice President – Commercial/Agribusiness Product & Pricing for the Property Casualty Insurance Organization. Austen was named president of Allied on March 1, 2006.

Austen is a board member of the Science Center of Iowa. He serves on the Leadership Cabinet of the Central Iowa Chapter of the American Red Cross. Austen is a member of the Emmett J. Vaughan Institute of Risk Management and Insurance Advisory Board affiliated with the University of Iowa College of Business.

Allied Insurance is a property-casualty insurer established in Des Moines, Iowa, in 1929. Allied operates in 32 states through a network of independent agents with regional offices based in Des Moines, IA; Sacramento, CA; Denver, CO; and Lincoln, NE. Allied has been a member of the Nationwide family of companies since 1998, and is responsible for Nationwide's independent agency system. Based in Columbus, Ohio, Nationwide is a Fortune 100 company and one of the country's largest multi-insurers and financial services organizations.