

Patrick J. Meyer

Pat Meyer was appointed President and CEO of Pella Corporation in December 2009. He was elected to the Pella Board of Directors in May 2009. Since joining Pella in 1990, Pat has progressed through the company with assignments in Pella, Iowa; Chicago, Illinois; Shenandoah, Iowa; and Cincinnati, Ohio. The most recent positions include Executive Vice President and COO and Group Vice President. Prior to that Pat was named Group Vice President and ESD President and COO, responsible for both the Entry Systems Division and EFCO. He was elected a Corporate Vice President by the Board of Directors and Shareholders at their spring 2007 meeting. His previous position was Division President/COO of the Entry Systems Division; he was appointed spring 2005.

Pat earned both his B.S. and M.B.A. degrees from Drake University where he was a member of the Drake Wrestling Team and Drake University Letterman's Club. Pat is currently a National Board member for Drake University's College of Business. He is also an alumnus of Northwestern University Kellogg Executive Scholar program, earning the Certificate of Professional Achievement in Marketing. Pat completed the General Management Program at Harvard Business School in 2009.

Pat and his wife Jackie live in Pella. They have four children: Jake, Madeline, Jack and Natalie.