

William B. Leaver

Leaver became President and Chief Executive Officer in January 2008. Prior to becoming CEO of Iowa Health System, he served as President and CEO at Trinity Regional Health System in the Quad-Cities for almost seven years. During Leaver's tenure, Trinity established itself as a health-care leader in quality, innovations and prevention. In 2007 Trinity was recognized as a Top 100 hospital by Thompson and for developing one of the nation's leading heart surgery programs by HealthGrades. Leaver has a Bachelor of Science, Public Administration from Western Michigan University in Kalamazoo, Michigan and a Master of Public Health from University of Michigan at Ann Arbor.
